

Paul Brunell, a key Hilltop Global Associate- Biography.

Paul Brunell is a Consultant and Executive in Human Resources with over thirty years experience in human resources and compensation in a broad range of industrial sectors.

Paul has held Vice President and Director positions with global responsibilities with AON Consulting, CARE, Disney, and McDermott. His early career was spent with Crompton & Knowles, Mobil Oil, and GTE. His assignments have included international positions in residence in Asia and Europe, and since 1976 have included broad global compensation & employee benefits portfolios for expatriate and local national employees.

Additionally, Paul was Principal in an HR consulting practice in the Dayton, Ohio area in the late-1980s, with a client base of small to medium size companies.

A former adjunct instructor for the International Foundation for Employee Benefit Plans (IFEBC), Paul has presented at the American Compensation Association annual conference. He was affiliated previously with International Compensation Committee of the National Foreign Trade Council (NFTC), International Institute of Human Resources (IIHR), and International Hotel Compensation & Benefits Association.

Paul resides in Atlanta, Georgia and holds a BA Degree in History from Holy Cross College and an MA in Human Development from Governor's State University.