

Candy Mirrer, a key Hilltop Global Associate- Biography.

Candy Mirrer has over 25 years experience in 23 countries in Europe, Asia, Latin America, and the Middle East, where her clients have included Fortune 500, global multinationals, non-profits, and startups. Candy has addressed global HR, organizational effectiveness, and change/transformation issues associated with geographic expansion, transformation, and technology.

Candy Mirrer's experience with blue-chip consulting firms includes Booz Allen and Hamilton (Asia-Pacific, Europe), BearingPoint (Middle East), Ernst and Young (USA and Europe), Corporate Resource Group (Europe), and Barents/KPMG (Europe), where she also managed, global teams in 10 countries on three continents. Candy has founded two start-ups, and has developed a global consulting practice, where she developed strategic alliances and partnerships to leverage new business for major accounts.

Her clients included Hewlett Packard (Europe, USA), Michelin (France), Banco Santander (Spain), Alcatel (France), PeopleSoft (USA), WPP Communications (USA), TetraPak (Sweden, Italy), Norsk Hydro (Belgium), Indosat (Indonesia), Bank of Ceylon (Sri Lanka), Georgia Railways (Georgia), and Acaba Investment Corporation (Jordan), ORT (Eurasia), and Associated Merchandising Corporation (India).

Candy returned to the Bay Area in 2004 after an assignment as Peace Corps Country Director for Romania, the third largest program worldwide. During her tenure, she initiated partnerships with organizations such as Microsoft, Cisco, Avon, United Nations, and Deloitte & Touche as well as award-winning programs in culture and technology. Recently, Candy has worked on international HR projects in the Middle East (Jordan) and NIS (Georgia).

Candy wrote "MBA and International Careers", MBA Magazine, and is featured in Power Tools for Women in Business (2001). She has been listed in Who's Who of American Women, and Who's Who in the World. She received her BA (Latin American) Studies from State University of New York at Albany, MBA (Management and Organization Development) from Boston University, and MS (Psychology/Rehabilitation) from the University of Arizona.